

Picture above) Tables positioning for the execution of the second level. The translation of ST110 tables to the upper level, is made by means of a special hoisting fork. The total surface for any casting phase is of approx. 1600 m<sup>2</sup>

Picture on the right) Area for starting disarming; SlabProp props are used as support until the casting consolidation.

Site: Calgary (Canada)

Company: Giusti Group

Picture on the right)

table's lowering by means of the quick and simple dismantling stirrup.

Pictures in the middle)

show the working phases sequence: the tables positioning for a new casting, the lift-stair shaft assembling (by means of corner stripping device) and columns made with P300 formwork.

Pictures below)

ST110 tables foresee secondary beams made with Aluminium beams of 19 cm and a plywood countercasting surface of 18 mm

